1.	AMENDMENT TO NOTICE OF MOTION - SCHOOL HOLIDAYS
-----------	--

Replace the text of the motion with

We call on Council to lobby Welsh Government in response to the proposals to shorten school summer holidays. Counties throughout Wales should retain their ability to change term-time arrangements to ensure the Royal Welsh Show continues to fall within the school holidays.

Furthermore, the Council wishes Welsh Government to know that there are economic, social, and logistical reasons why the RWS should not be held during term time and the Council calls on Welsh Government to consider this impact when assessing the evidence – for and against – for altering the current term-time arrangements to shorten the summer holidays.

Proposed: Cllr Gareth D Jones
Seconded: Cllr Gwynfor Thomas

Financial assessment

This motion proposes lobbying Welsh Government and can be managed within existing resources. Officers will be able to accommodate supporting this activity as part of their role.

2.	NOTICE OF MOTION - IMPACTS OF THE WAR IN GAZA
-----------	--

This motion has been withdrawn.

3.	AMENDMENT TO NOTICE OF MOTION - SUSTAINABLE FARMING SCHEME
-----------	---

Replace the text of the motion with:

This Council resolves as follows:

Powys County Council considers the current situation to be untenable and asks the Welsh Government to renew engagement with the farming unions, before reapproaching the agricultural sector, once serious amendments have been made to the Sustainable Farming Scheme.

Proposed by County Councillor Lucy Roberts

Seconded by County Councillor. Geoff Morgan

Financial assessment

This motion proposes lobbying Welsh Government and can be managed within existing resources. Officers will be able to accommodate supporting this activity as part of their role.
