5.	SIZE OF THE COMMITTEE	EAC24- 2015
-----------	------------------------------	--------------------

Members discussed the size of the Committee in light of both the need to modernise its working practices and to make savings by reducing membership on committees. The Head of Democratic Services provided details of the arrangements in other Welsh authorities.

There were currently four vacant places on the committee which was an indication that Members did not wish to serve on the committee. The majority of the committee's work was done in appeals panels and not all members of the committee participated in these. Members advised that the volume of paperwork associated with appeals cases made it difficult to take part when they were serving on other committees, such as the Planning, Taxi Licensing and Rights of Way Committee that also had sizeable agendas. Members asked whether it was possible to reduce the amount of paperwork that the appeals panels had to consider but were advised that appellants had the right to submit whatever documents they wanted to support their appeals.

It was agreed to bring a detailed report to the next meeting of the Committee.

6.	EFFECTIVENESS OF PART TIME WORKING ARRANGEMENTS	EAC25- 2015
-----------	--------------------------------------------------------	--------------------

This issue had been raised at the last meeting of the Joint Chairs and Vice-Chairs Steering Group regarding the inability of the Council to recruit to part time posts because employment of over 16 hours a week affected the benefits of part time members of staff. The Acting Professional Lead for HR advised that he was not aware that this was an issue for services, with the possible exception of a small number of posts in Children's Services. The Head of Democratic Services agreed to consult the member who had raised the issue at the Joint Chairs Committee to see if there was a specific issue that he wanted to be addressed.

The discussion moved onto flexible working and the problems Councillors sometimes faced in having their queries dealt with if the member of staff they were trying to contact was away. There was recognition that managers needed to ensure that there was adequate cover for when staff were away. The Chair asked for a report back to the next meeting of the Committee.

-----------	------------------------------	--------------------

The Committee received details of an employment law case. Members asked that when they make recommendations in appeals panels they receive feedback on whether their recommendations have been adopted.
