QUESTIONS AT ANY TIME TO CABINET PORTFOLIO HOLDERS

Response by the Portfolio Holder:

The authority has taken account of the non-statutory guidance from the Welsh Government since its publication. These includes extending consultation periods, creating a video that provides an overview of the proposal and details of how people can respond, publicising the proposal on posters and how people can respond, including how to obtain hard copies of documents. A notice has also gone in the local press advising of the consultations. Evidence from recent consultations suggests that the public are engaging fully with the consultation process.
