QUESTIONS AT ANY TIME TO CABINET PORTFOLIO HOLDERS

Question From:	County Councillor Elwyn Vaughan
Subject:	Welsh heritage and cultural tourism
Question To:	County Councillor David Selby Cabinet Member for a More Prosperous Powys

Question:

A great deal of attention has been focussed in recent days about the Royal family, heritage and traditions.

Here in Powys we have a proud history and rich heritage from the time of Llywelyn, Glyndwr and the Princes of Powys. However, what many have noticed in recent days is the lack of publicity, respect and attention shown to this rich history. Hardly any attempt is made of it in relation to tourism or educationally. Specific criticism has been voiced by visitors to Sycharth near LLansilin about the condition of the important historical site.

In view of these public criticisms, the missed economic opportunities, and missed cultural tourism, what actions has Powys taken to rectify this situation and what positive, decisive action will you be taking in the coming months.
