QUESTIONS AT ANY TIME TO CABINET PORTFOLIO HOLDERS

| Question From: | County Councillor Jeremy Brignell-Thorp |
| Subject: | Planning scrutiny and enforcement |
| Question To: | County Councillor Jake Berriman Cabinet Member for a Connected Powys |

Question:

We have a major development in my ward that residents have for a long time been pressing to have a planning review carried out as there is significant concern that works have far exceeded the consents given. This concern dates back several years, with my predecessor in the ward having put in much effort even prior to me coming into post. We are told that there is insufficient officer time to deal with it.

Does the council have a plan for addressing the backlog of planning scrutiny and enforcement so that we can be sure that planning conditions are being met and developers are operating within what is actually consented.
