QUESTIONS AT ANY TIME TO HEADS OF SERVICE

Question From:	County Councillor Elwyn Vaughan
Subject:	Gynghorau tref a chymuned ym Mhowys / Town and community councils in Powys
Question To:	Head of Legal and Monitoring Officer

Question:

Ceir 110 o gynghorau tref a chymuned ym Mhowys allan o 730 sydd yng Nghymru gyfan. Y mwyaf o unrhyw Sir yng Nghymru. Mae nifer ohonynt yn cael trafferth cael aelodau, trafferth cael clercod, ac yn gyfyng o ran eu gallu i weithredu er budd eu cymunedau. Maent hefyd yn cyfrannu at gostau treth cyngor trigolion Powys. Mae'n ddyletswydd ar Gynghorau Sir i adolygu cynghorau tref a chymuned pob 15 mlynedd. Credaf fod angen gwneud hynny er budd ein trigolion. Pryd fydd Cyngor Powys yn cynnal adolygiad o'r fath?	There are 110 town and community councils in Powys out of the 730 in the whole of Wales. The largest amount in any County in Wales. Many of them are struggling to get members, struggling to get clerks, and are restricted in their ability to operate in the interest of their communities. They also contribute towards council tax costs of Powys residents. County Councils have a responsibility to review town and community councils every 15 years. I believe that there is a need to do so in the interest of our residents. When will Powys County Council carry out such a review?
