Question From:	County Councillor Elwyn Vaughan
Subject:	Adfer Ynni Pyrolysis / Pyrolysis Energy Recovery
Question To:	County Councillor James Gibson-Watt Leader

Question:

I note that Shropshire Council want to establish a pyrolysis plant and according to the County Times article it will be built in Powys as part of cross border initiative.

It states that 50% will be owned by Shropshire and 50% by a private firm and "the joint venture will be in Powys in the Marches Forward Partnership area."

Is this part of the Marches Partnership? Was Powys council aware of the proposal? Have local Cllrs and communities been consulted on this development?
