To whom it may concern

My late father Roy Pugh farmed at Waunglapiau from 1935 until 1970, and I write to confirm that for the whole of that period he was the sole grazer of Bryndu land, being part of Waunglapiau, and that land was used only for grazing,

Yours faithfully,

To whom it may concern

Until recently, I farmed at Tynybryn, Llanfair Caereinion, which I purchased off my late father-in-law in 1972.

It was at that time that it was discovered he had unintentionally applied to register the wrong area of land as Common. I instructed my solicitor to rectify the matter.

At no time have myself or my father-in-law grazed sheep on the registered area.

Yours faithfully,
